United States District Court,

On 9-18-18, After having issues with the officers about my medical lay-in ever since being transferred onto Tipton Correctional Center on 8-2-18, I am giving you another declaratory statement.

On 9-18-18 the inmates were called to Breakfast for 17 house, I got my tray and sat down. I looked at the clock which read six minutes to six A.M. At six fifteen the chow hall was empty except for me and the officer. He said I'm waiting on you, That means once again I was deprived of my allotted time to eat, which is 30 minutes because of my medical disability.

Sincerely,

~~James Elston~~ # 1277919
